THE FALSE RELIGIONS OF SATAN

Genesis 3:4-5 ‘You will not certainly die,’ the snake said to the woman. ‘For God knows that when you eat from it your eyes will be opened, and you will be like God, knowing good and evil.’

Satan was banished from Heaven and cast down to Earth because of rebellion against God and wanting to be god. He deceived Adam and Eve with the lie that they would be gods if they too rebelled against God. He convinced them that there would be no consequences to committing evil and that they could make their own standards. Because Adam and Eve listened to Satan instead of to God, they were ashamed, guilty, separated from God, and banished from the Garden of Eden. They brought consequences on the whole world. Although God made them to be over the rest of creation, they became slaves to Satan and to sin. They were made to have God’s Spirit living in them and leading them, but because of sin they were being led by spirits of the world. God made a way for them to be forgiven and restored through turning from sin and accepting the coming sacrifice of Jesus Christ for their sins. Satan creates false religions to keep everyone in bondage to him instead. Without God’s Spirit, people are led astray after false teachers and worldly spirits to live for the temporary and empty things of this world. God wants you to have a right and personal relationship with Him through faith in Him, and not a self-centered hypocritical ritual based religion.

Common symbolism, hand signals, repetitive prayers and rituals with beads, bells, and chanting, and mindless unquestioning obedience to religious leaders, is common in Pagan religions. The chanting and rituals are used to repetitively reinforce the lies in the believer’s mind, and to open a person to demon possession. Open displays of hypnotism and demonic possession are often seen in cults and false religions. For more information, watch the Youtube video called “666: The Cult of Saturn” by xJohn xRevelator.

All the false religions of the world originated in ancient Babylon. After the Great Flood, Noah and his family landed on Mount Ararat at the top of the Euphrates. The people went down the Euphrates back to where they had been before, and rebuilt the same Pagan temples that were wiped out during the Great Flood. Nimrod, in defiance against God and another great flood, built a ziggurat pyramid (known as the Tower of Babel) for the glory of man. The Tower of Babel, was later rebuilt by Nebuchadnezzar as recorded by the ancient historian Herodotus. Nimrod wore a fish hat (mitre), and is also known by archaeologists and historians as Sargon the Great. Inspired by Satan, he conquered and ruled the world through a united government and religion based on man’s efforts.

God confused their language and caused the people to spread out over the Earth, but they took the religion of Babylon with them. Pyramids and ziggurats throughout the world were modeled after the Tower of Babel, as was the current European Union headquarters building. They were living for worldly pleasures and looked to signs in the sun, moon, and stars, and other omens for guidance because they did not have God’s Spirit. They worshipped created things instead of the Creator. As the Bible foretold, there is again a movement to unite a global government and religion that enslaves and depopulates, based on man’s efforts to save himself instead of on God’s love and power.
The Babylonians had many false gods that they worshipped to give them the worldly things that they thought could make them fulfilled. Their lives were empty and unfulfilled due to separation from their Creator. According to Alexander Hisslop’s book “The Two Babylons”, their primary gods were a father god (the emperor Nimrod), the mother goddess represented by the symbol of the moon (his wife Semiramis), and the reincarnated sun god (Tammuz, the son of Semiramis). Tammuz was a counterfeit of the Messiah that was prophesied to Adam and Eve would come to sacrifice Himself for the sins of the world. Santa Claus is also a created Pagan god of materialism.

The Pagans created religious rites and festivals as guides at the times of the solstices and equinoxes, and at phases of the moon, in their quest for fulfillment in their lust and worship of the created and temporary things of this world. ¹ These celebrations are times of unrestrained pagan revelry, orgies, drunkenness, materialism, and hostility. Mardi Gras, also called Fat Tuesday, is an example of this unrestrained Pagan revelry as the celebrants give prayer beads for acts of immorality, and show unrestrained drunkenness before the 40 day Fast for Tammuz, known as Lent in Roman Catholicism (Ezekiel 8:14). Fasting, gift giving, and other religious rituals cannot take away your sins. Suicide rates rise during these celebrations because people are disappointed in their expectations of what they think these empty rituals should bring.

Babylonian² Pagan symbolism is seen throughout society today, declaring the authority of the occult; including, the crescent moon, the sun, stars, the all seeing eye, obelisks, and male-female icons. Priests wore special robes, were celibate, and cut their hair in circular tonsures representing the sun god. There were temple prostitutes devoted to the temples. Confessionals were used to gather information to control people through guilt.
Today, we are flooded with censuses, applications requesting personal information, and tracking through audio, video, and other electronic devices that we use and are subjected to. Nimrod wore a dagon fish hat (mitre)\(^3\) like the Pope does now. Babylon had idols of winged animals, and of Semiramis\(^4\) who was called the Mother of God and the Queen of Heaven. Pagan religions have goddesses modeled after the same idol, but with different names and forms in different locations. Satan is considered to be a hermaphrodite in some Pagan religions, as seen in the Goat of Mendez, and is known by different names using idols or pictures of either male, female, or both. He is also represented in Pagan religions by stones and other neutral idols from nature. People in Pagan religions are often deceived into believing they are worshipping God the Creator, when they are actually worshipping Satan.

The idea that God is both good and evil, light and darkness, male and female, was part of the lie of Satan in the Garden of Eden (1 John 1:5). God temporarily allows evil, but does not cause it or commit it (James 1:13-14). There are consequences for evil. God wants you to willingly choose what is right and to reject the evil.

Most Pagan religions and Pagan organizations have a strict hierarchy. Participants must perform religious rituals and mindlessly obey leaders to work their way up a ladder to get closer to god or to become a god. They are also called mystery religions because only the people at the top know the secrets of the religion. It is a way for those at the top to make total mind controlled slaves of those at the bottom. This is also seen in educational systems and the mass media. People are led to believe that because it is taught in school or on TV that it must be true. The world rulers use propaganda and subliminal messages to control the herd mentality and lead the masses however they want. Some people become hypnotized and demon possessed.

The Bible warned that in the last days Satan would mislead people with deceptive signs, miracles, and wonders (Matthew 24:24). The Bible also said that in the last days people will gather around them teachers to tell them what their itching ears want to hear (2 Timothy 4:3). People that join these occult religions, occult organizations, and cults pretending to be Christian, are led to believe they are something good. As they become more involved, they discover that Satan is at the top and comes to steal, kill, and destroy (John 10:10). Satan is the father of lies, and hides his evil behind a pretense of goodness (John 8:44). Truth is used with lies mixed in to get people to follow and be led astray. The way to spot a counterfeit is to know the truth, so deceivers keep people from the truth of the Bible and from experiencing God’s salvation through faith in Jesus Christ alone.

Freemasonry is a secret organization of the Vatican run by the Jesuits. Freemasons have started many occult religions and cults that pretend to be Christian. It is esoteric and those at the bottom are kept from knowing the secrets at the top. The letter ‘G’ in the symbol of Freemasonry is taught to initiates to mean 1 God, the All Seeing Eye. As they progress up the ladder, they learn that it means Geometry with 2 angles, and they learn the hidden meanings on different levels of various occult symbolism. The two sided generative and hegalian principle is taught. Then they learn that it means 3 the Grand Architect of the Universe. For those that go farther, there is a riddle – “Letters 4, Science 5”. It means 4 letters “Gesu”. Italian does not have a letter “J”. Gesu is the Italian word for Jesus, but it is not the Jesus of the Bible that they are referring to. It is a false Jesus. The Church of the Gesu in Rome is where the Superior General of the Jesuits (Gesuits) is headquartered, and he is the Grand Architect of the plans of the New World Order. The Freemasons get their orders from the Jesuits, and the Jesuits are under demons. The final revelation of the symbol “G” in Freemasonry, is 5 science - Gnosticism. The word “science” means knowledge, but it is secret occult knowledge that is being referred to. Gnostic means someone with experience of hidden occult knowledge, as also the words Illuminati, Alumbrados, Arcane, and Luciferian mean. The top levels of the occult religions consciously worship Satan, but prefer to call him Lucifer because they believe that he came to give light to the world. They believe they are gods because they are inspired by demons. Satan blames God, but his lies are what caused all the sin and destruction in the world. The top levels of the occult intentionally deceive those at the bottom to keep their evil hidden.

Jesus Christ is God, came and lived a perfect life of love, and gave Himself once for all to pay the penalty for the sins of the whole world so that those who renounce their sins and put their faith in Him as Lord and Savior are forgiven and have a right and personal relationship with God forever (John 3:16, 17). You can never do enough works to have assurance of Heaven because you have done wrong, have fallen short, and are inherently sinful (Romans 3:23). What you need is God living in you and through you (Galatians 2:20). God’s Spirit is received through faith in Jesus Christ. There is only one way to know for certain that your sins are forgiven and to have assurance of eternal life in Heaven, and that is through faith in Jesus Christ alone (John 14:6).

Jesus warned us that many false teachers, false prophets, and false Christs would come to deceive even the elect if that were possible (Matthew 24:24). This is particularly true as we approach the end of this age (2 Peter 2:1). The Bible specifically warns us of a particular Antichrist (1 John 2:18) and a particular False Prophet (Revelation 19:20) at the end of the age. As we approach the end, we see many leaders being promoted as idols through the New World Order controlled mass media and music industry. They are promoted as idols to be worshiped in place of God, and are made to look humanitarian although they have self-serving motives.

John 10:10 The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy; I have come that they may have life, and have it to the full. Satan comes to rob, kill, and destroy you, but Jesus came to give you eternal life. Jesus is God and is how God shows Himself to us. He humbled Himself to leave His throne in Heaven to come and pay the penalty for our sins so that we can be forgiven and have God’s perfect will in our lives forever. Satan wants everything for himself and does everything he can to keep people from knowing the truth of the Gospel. Evil is made to look like something good through staged productions, lighting, smoke, mirrors, and makeup. Evil lures you, traps you, bites you suddenly like a snake, and won’t let you go. Satan is an entertainer and magician that uses distractions to keep you from knowing the real truth and being saved. Most people prefer the temporary illusions of Satan and ignore the eternal consequences. The truth is available to those who want it enough to break free from the emptiness of the world system.

2 Thessalonians 2:9-10 The coming of the lawless one will be in accordance with how Satan works. He will use all sorts of displays of power through signs and wonders that serve the lie, and all the ways that wickedness deceives those who are perishing. They perish because they refused to love the truth and so be saved.

Below is a picture of the ancient goddess Ishtar, the goddess of fertility which the Pagan festival of Easter comes from. The goddess is also called the Queen of Night, and the owls represent those who are able to see in the darkness. It is celebrated at the Spring Equinox.

Below is a Catholic procession in which a piece of bread is placed in a monstrance that is a symbol of the Pagan sun god, and people are commanded to worship it and to believe that it is Jesus Christ. Also is a picture of Pope Benedict XVI holding up a piece of bread in a monstrance of the sun god for people to worship.
